Track and Field at Minoru

What a fun day everyone had at Minoru on Thursday!

We are very proud of our student athletes for their sportsmanship and teamwork. We'd also like to thank all of our staff for organizing such a successful day! The weather was beautiful and we were so glad that so many family members could join us. Look for more photos on Twitter and in the newsletters to come!

Camp Reflections from Bridge Students:

À mon avis, pendant mon séjour au Camp Jubilee, je me suis rendu compte que l'ambiance était plus agréable parce que la vie à Richmond est tellement différente. J'ai remarqué que l'environnement était plus libre et positif où tu pouvais faire et dire comme tu voulais. Contrairement à Richmond, quelquefois ce n'est pas la même expérience, car nous n'avons pas toujours l'espace de parler comme nous voulons. J'aime le fait que j'ai eu l'occasion de parler avec d'autres élèves dans le programme d'anglais. Nous avons aussi rencontré de nouveaux gens avec qui on a joué au volleyball. L'équipe de Bridge a gagné plusieurs fois.

Si je pouvais dire quelques commentaires à propos de ce que nous avons mangé, la nourriture faite à la maison me manquait parce que chez Camp Jubilee, nos repas n'étaient pas tellement nourrissants.

En somme, j'ai eu une bonne expérience chez Camp Jubilee et j'espère que je peux retourner une autre fois.

Je voudrais aussi remercier Mme Canas, Monsieur Gill et Mme Lai qui sont venus avec nous !

What an amazing camping trip I had this year! The food, the activities, the campground, the cabins, everything was beautiful and well prepared. Activities we did were kayaking, canoeing, high ropes, team building, archer, and even shelter building. My group even spotted an otter in the ocean when we went canoeing. The activities I enjoyed the most were kayaking and archery. Even though I was completely soaked after kayaking (warning for all of you who plan to kayak; bring an extra pair of clothes because you're most likely going to be wet at the end!). I really liked being on water, and the scenery was exquisite. We got to chase a counsellor on our kayaks, race with our fellow classmates, and we even learned how to pivot 360 degrees. Overall, I had a great experience at Camp Jubilee and I think the future Grade 7's will love going there.
